WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT THE HEARING

- Please note that all hearing times are in the Saskatchewan timezone.
- Proper notice of the hearing must be given by the deadlines specified by the Office of Residential Tenancies (ORT).
- If you do not appear for the hearing, an Order may be made against you in your absence. All parties are to contact the ORT at 1-833-685-2636 (toll free) to confirm attendance (a minimum of 2 days before your hearing). If accommodations are required, please contact the number listed above. The hearing is informal and you can represent yourself. Your evidence may be verbal or you can provide a written statement. All information and hearings are open to the public.
- The hearing usually proceeds as follows:
  - The parties are introduced and the process explained.
  - The party bringing the application, the Applicant, gives their evidence first. The Respondent can ask questions.
  - The Respondent then gives their evidence and the Applicant can ask questions.
  - After all evidence is presented, the parties may sum up their case.
  - The Hearing Officer may also ask questions and direct and control the hearing to keep it focused.
  - Decisions are not given at the hearing, but will be sent by email or mail.
- ORT decisions are available for your information online at https://www.canlii.org/en/sk/skort/ which may be of assistance in preparing for a hearing.

THE EVIDENCE YOU PRESENT AT THE HEARING

- You must be fully prepared to present all your evidence at the hearing. This is your only opportunity to tell your story.
- All evidence you want to submit must be provided to the ORT and served on the other party(ies) well in advance of the hearing. Keep a copy of your evidence. The Hearing Officer has discretion to proceed with the hearing and not allow late materials to be filed as evidence. It is your responsibility to ensure that all evidence is relevant to your application and not repetitive as there may be limitations on what you may submit.
- Documents, Pictures, Videos, and other Evidence: Ensure all evidence is provided well in advance of the hearing and submitted with a document list.
- Evidence Uploaded to the Online Portal: All evidence uploaded to the online portal is viewable to both parties and the hearing officer. Evidence must still be served on the other party via another method (e.g., personally, electronically, etc.). Any evidence provided to the ORT may be made public if appealed to a higher court.

If you require further information or assistance please call 1-888-215-2222 (toll free within Saskatchewan), 1-306-787-2699 (outside Saskatchewan), email ort@gov.sk.ca, or visit the ORT website: www.saskatchewan.ca/ort.
